

Former Knight Receives Baseball Honors

Elon, NC- Former Surry standout Cory Harrilchak was recently named to the 2008 ABCA/Rawlings All-Atlantic Region baseball team for his outstanding performance at Elon University. Harrilchak and teammate Steven Hensley mark the second and third Elon players to earn all-region accolades. College World Series participants Miami and North Carolina highlighted the All-Atlantic Region First and Second Teams with five honorees apiece. Harrilchak was also selected to the fifth annual North Carolina Collegiate Sports Information Association (NCCSIA) University Division All-State baseball team. The squad consists of student-athletes from NCAA Division I colleges and universities throughout the state. Harrilchak went 5-for-5 and was named the 2008 Southern Conference Tournament Most Outstanding Player as the Elon Phoenix defeated the College of Charleston Cougars 17-8 to claim the 2008 tournament title. The junior also earned Southern Conference Honors (First Team) and was named Southern Conference Player of the Week in April. The outfielder from Cary, North Carolina was also selected to the College Baseball Foundation's "National All-Star Lineup". Harrilchak graduated from Surry after helping lead the Knights to 80-38 record during his two seasons.
